

PENNIES FROM PEANUT BUTTER[®]

Pennies from Peanut Butter is a simple way to help hungry kids right here in Greenville County! Fill an empty peanut butter jar with all the pennies (and other spare change) you can find. Its that easy!

Who Is Hungry? 60,000 people in Greenville County do not know where one or more of their meals will come from each day. Two thirds of these people are children. The truth is, in many local neighborhoods, lots of people don't always have enough to eat.

Will My Pennies Help? Yes! A 16 ounce jar will hold approximately 800 pennies. For every $8 donated, Loaves & Fishes can provide $101.36 in retail food value. Just pennies can feed a hungry child right here in Greenville County!

What You'll Need: Clean plastic jars or containers for collecting coins, labels for decorating empty jars and creativity!

What Is Loaves & Fishes? We are a local food rescue non-profit organization. Since 1991, we have been bringing the hungry fresh food daily. This year we will rescue more than 950,000 pounds of perishable food from grocery stores, restaurants, businesses, caterers and churches. This food—that otherwise would be thrown away—is delivered free of charge to more than 100 local emergency food providers.
